

2004 WILDCARD CHARDONNAY

When the Barossa was faced with adversity, Peter Lehmann played his "Wildcard" and formed a company to support his loyal growers.

Today, Peter Lehmann Wines is one of Australia's most respected, energetic and innovative winemakers, creating wines which delight wine lovers around the globe.

The Peter Lehmann winemakers have selected premium South Australian Chardonnay picked at optimum maturity to produce a fruit-filled, flavourful dry white wine.

Colour: Light green straw

Bouquet: Fresh aromas of white peach with a touch of citrus

Palate: Delicious full flavours of fresh peach and honey dew melon on the middle palate. It is a beautifully balanced, fruit-driven Chardonnay, yet with a degree of complexity. It finishes with a clean, tangy acidity.

Vineyards: Selected South Australian Riverland and Barossa Valley

Alc/Vol: 13.0%

Serving Suggestions:

Delicious as an aperitif, Wildcard Chardonnay is also a delightful accompaniment to roast chicken, creamy pasta dishes, pan-fried fish or a vegetarian pizza.

Tasting Note